Live! Concert Series on the Plaza Returns for its 18th Season
DMV's most talented performers hit the stage on Wilson Plaza at Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center

Washington, DC – One of DC's longest running free concert series returns as Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center (RRB/ITC) hosts Live! Concert Series on the Plaza. The series kicks off on Monday, July 30 and runs through Friday, September 28, every weekday from noon to 1:00pm. Locals and passersby can enjoy free, daily lunchtime performances featuring the areas most talented entertainers in a variety of musical flavors, such as jazz, neo soul, bluegrass, swing, Latin, reggae, country, pop rock, Go -Go and more.

As part of the RRB/ITC's mission Live! was launched in 2000 to help establish a pedestrian link between the National Mall and business district north of Pennsylvania Avenue and build a stronger sense of community in Downtown DC. With plenty of outdoor seating and lunch options Wilson Plaza is a perfect place, for music lovers of all ages, to enjoy the diverse of sounds of the DMV area. Live! is a program of RRB/ITC and is sponsored by TCMA (A Drew Company).
